Overview

This tour is one of the most successful 4-day Cairo city breaks among other package tours for travelers, eager to see the evaluation of main attractions in a comparatively short period. Egypt is truly an unavoidable magnet, which has drawn attention by its establishing historical and cultural uniqueness. Between the interesting excursions in Cairo, you can explore the lively, but at the same time ancient, atmosphere of the city.

Welcome to a memorable Egypt classic vacation where you will visit the Giza Pyramids complex; the Sphinx is a great attraction. Learn about the site of Saqqara, which hosts the world's first step pyramid and the city of Memphis. You will also explore Coptic Cairo and its quite incredible religious sights and buildings. Also, you will have a chance to make a shopping tour of Khan El Khalili bazaar, where formerly the Tomb of el-Za'faraan, where the caliphs of the Fatimid dynasty were buried, was situated in contemporary Islamic Cairo.

Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Cairo

A Best Destination Tours representative will assist and accompany you through the arrival procedure at Cairo International Airport. There you will be welcomed by your dedicated tour guide, who will escort you in a comfortable, air-conditioned vehicle to transfer you directly to the hotel. To ensure that your 4-day Cairo tour gets off to a great start, our tour manager will assist you with check-in, after which he will review your itinerary to confirm all details concerning the upcoming days. Arrive and enjoy a welcome drink while you check into the Cairo Pyramids Hotel for the night.

Day 2

Tour to Pyramids of Giza, Memphis and Saqqara

Start your day by having your breakfast before heading on this unforgettable tour to the Giza Plateau. Spend your whole-day trip in the company of a knowledgeable Egyptologist and see such awe-inspiring sights as the Great Pyramid of King Cheops, the pyramids of Chephren and Mycerinus, the Great Sphinx, and the Valley Temple of King Chephren to capture the magic of Ancient Egypt. You can enjoy a camel ride with breathtaking views.

Proceed with a visit to the Necropolis of Saqqara, where the Step Pyramid of King Djoser is located. This is a very impressive architectural monument and marks the transition to the pyramid building. You will also see numerous tombs with sharp carvings showing scenes of everyday life. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant to allow you to try traditional Egyptian dishes. Continue to Memphis, the Old Capital of Egypt, where you will visit the gigantic statue of Ramses II and the spectacular Alabaster

Sphinx. Back to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 3

Visiting Old Cairo Sightseeing

Following breakfast, you will visit the Egyptian Museum, which displays the largest number of artifacts of Ancient Egypt, which include the great golden artifacts of the Pharaoh-king Tutankhamun. Then, you will visit the Citadel of Saladin and tour the Mohamed Ali Mosque. After lunch, make yourself familiar with Coptic Cairo, as you will see the suspended church building known as the Hanging Church and the church of St. Sergius and St. Bacchus, which is said to have been used as a hiding place for the Holy Family during their sojourn in Egypt. Move to the Ben Ezra Synagogue, which is associated with biblical history. As the day comes to a close, take an evening walk through Khan El Khalili Bazaar to experience the vibrant atmosphere of one of the oldest markets in the Middle East. After a busy day, spend a relaxing evening at the hotel.

Day 4

Departure from Cairo

Have breakfast in the hotel before you proceed to leave the hotel. You can participate in one of the optional Cairo day tours to take a last look at the city. Then, your private guide will drive you to Cairo International Airport for your flight home.
