Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival to Cairo

Our representative from Best Destination Tours will be waiting to receive you at Cairo International Airport and help to clear immigration formalities and baggage claims and also to transfer you to the hotel. The first thing to do in Cairo is to visit the Giza Pyramids and the Sphinx. Your guide will provide you with an overview of the history of the pyramids and the Sphinx and how they were built. Next, depending on which order you'd like to visit the tour, you can go to the Pyramids of Saqqara, where you can find the Step Pyramid of King Djoser; which was constructed by the architect Imhotep.

After having your lunch, you will proceed to visit the Dahshur pyramids, where you are free to view the bent pyramid and the red pyramid, which was constructed by King Senefru. Next, pay a visit to Memphis, the capital of ancient Egypt, to capture an opportunity to see a colossal image of Ramses II and some other historical monuments. Your guide will then return you to your hotel to freshen up and check in before the next activity.

Meals included: Lunch

Day 2

Day Tour around Alexandria Sightseeing

Your driver and guide will transfer you to Alexandria, and then the morning starts with a visit to the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, then to Pompey's Pillar, which is the tallest standing column in Egypt. You will then go to visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, which was built on the ruins of the Pharos lighthouse and offers wonderful sea views.

Then, you will tour the contemporary Bibliotheca Alexandrina, and you will visit the city's central markets or regions, such as Squares and some very important monuments, which include the Unknown Soldiers statues. Your guide will then transfer you back to Cairo; however, you'll have a stop at a local café for a tea or coffee break.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3

Tour around Cairo Sightseeing

After having breakfast, you will visit the Egyptian Museum, showcasing the world's largest collection of Egyptian antiquities, including King Tutankhamun's gold mask and coffins. Later, you will visit the Citadel of Saladin, where you will have an opportunity to see one of Cairo's most impressive mosques, Mohamed Ali, 12th-century built. Then, proceed to Coptic Cairo, where the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon and the Hanging Church and St. Sergius Church are located, which is said to be the place where the Holy Family tried to take refuge.

Meals included: Breakfast & lunch

Day 4

Transfer from Cairo to Luxor

After breakfast, you will check out of your hotel and fly to Luxor. Upon arrival, you'll visit the West Bank to see the Valley of the Kings—an amazing experience whereby you explore three New Kingdom pharaohs' tombs. Continue to the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and the Colossi of Memnon, two gigantic statues that alone remain from Amenophis III's mortuary temple.

After lunch, you will proceed to the East Bank, where you will visit the huge temple complex of Karnak. The tour will end at Luxor Temple, one of the treasures of ancient Egyptian architecture. It's optional to attend the sound and light Show at Karnak Temple.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 5

Transfer from Luxor to Aswan

After having breakfast, you will take a car trip that would take you approximately 3 hours to Aswan. Visit Aswan High Dam first before going for a boat ride to the beautiful Philae Temple, which comprises the Pharaonic, Ptolemaic, and Roman eras, and Christianity as well.

After having lunch in Aswan, you will have some time to wander about before going to your hotel. The rest of the evening is your own to do with as you please or can go out and about as you wish.

Meals included: Breakfast and lunch

Day 6

Transfer Back to Cairo

After having breakfast, you'll go to Abu Simbel Temple, which was constructed by Ramses II as a private tomb for Himself and his queen. These are great carved temples that are some of the outstanding ones in the whole of Egypt. After visiting Aswan, continue your journey and be back in Aswan early in the afternoon and take a flight back to Cairo. Upon arrival at Cairo International Airport, our representative will be waiting for you to drive back to the hotel for early check-in and overnight accommodation.
