Day 1

Arrival to Cairo and Giza Pyramids Trips

Our representative from Best Destination Tours will be waiting to receive you at Cairo International Airport and help to clear immigration formalities and baggage claims, and also transfer you to the hotel. As part of your classic 7-day Cairo Alexandria Nile cruise tour, the first thing to do in Cairo is to visit the Giza Pyramids and the Sphinx. Your guide will provide you with an overview of the history of the pyramids and the Sphinx and how they were built. Next, depending on which order you'd like to visit the tour, you can go to the Pyramids of Saqqara, where you can find the Step Pyramid of King Djoser, an essential highlight among Cairo historical tours, which was constructed by the architect Imhotep.

After having your lunch, you will proceed to visit the Dahshur pyramids, where you are free to view the Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid, which was constructed by King Senefru. Next, pay a visit to Memphis, the capital of ancient Egypt, to capture an opportunity to see a colossal image of Ramses II and some other historical monuments. Your guide will then return you to your hotel to freshen up and check in before the next activity.

Meals included: Lunch

Day 2

Cairo to Alexandria Private Day Tour

Your driver and guide will transfer you to Alexandria as part of your Cairo to Alexandria private day tour, and then the morning starts with a visit to the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, followed by Pompey's Pillar, which is the tallest standing column in Egypt. You will then go to visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, which was built on the ruins of the Pharos lighthouse and offers wonderful sea views.

Then, you will tour the contemporary Bibliotheca Alexandrina, and you will visit the city's central markets or regions, such as squares and some very important monuments, which include the Unknown Soldiers statues. These stops are among the many fun activities in Alexandria that offer a mix of culture and local charm. Your guide will then transfer you back to Cairo; however, you'll have a stop at a local café for a tea or coffee break.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3

Coptic Cairo and Cairo Islamic Tour

After breakfast, a trip is planned to the Egyptian Museum, which contains the world's largest collection of Egyptian antiquities, such as the gold mask and coffins of King Tutankhamun. In the next stage, the Cairo Islamic tour will bring an exploration of the Citadel of Saladin, affording a view of the spectacular 12th-century mosque, the Mohamed Ali Mosque. This is one of the many highlights of Islamic Cairo, a rich region full of historical and architectural marvels. Next, you will find your way to Coptic Cairo, where the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon, the Hanging Church, and St. Sergius Church are all said to be places where the Holy Family found refuge. Certainly, if you wish to spice it up some more, you could go for Cairo adventure tours, which feature activities that are nothing short of thrilling to include in your trip.

Meals included: Breakfast & lunch

Transfer to Luxor and Luxor Sightseeing

After breakfast, you will check out of your hotel and fly to Luxor. Upon arrival, you'll visit the West Bank to see the Valley of the Kings, an amazing experience whereby you explore three New Kingdom pharaohs' tombs. Continue to the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and the Colossi of Memnon, two gigantic statues that alone remain from Amenophis III's mortuary temple. This itinerary is part of classic tour packages to Egypt, offering a comprehensive experience of Egypt's most iconic ancient wonders.

After lunch, you will proceed to the East Bank, where you will visit the huge temple complex of Karnak. The tour will end at Luxor Temple, one of the treasures of ancient Egyptian architecture. These are just some of the unique things to do in Luxor, offering you a chance to witness the grandeur of ancient Egypt. It's optional to attend the sound and light show at Karnak Temple for an even more magical experience.

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch

Transfer to Aswan - Explore Aswan

After having breakfast, you will take a car trip that will take you approximately 3 hours to Aswan. Visit the Aswan High Dam first before going for a boat ride to the beautiful Philae Temple, which comprises the Pharaonic, Ptolemaic, and Roman eras, and Christianity as well. These iconic sites are among the top Aswan attractions, offering a deep dive into the city's rich and layered history.

After having lunch in Aswan, you will have some time to wander about before going to your hotel. The rest of the evening is your own to do with as you please, or you can go out and about as you wish.

Meals included: Breakfast and lunch

Day 6

Abu Simbel Temple Excursion and Back to Cairo

After having breakfast, you'll go to Abu Simbel Temple, which was constructed by Ramses II as a private tomb for himself and his queen. These are great carved temples that are some of the outstanding ones in the whole of Egypt. After visiting Aswan, continue your journey and be back in Aswan early in the afternoon, and take a flight back to Cairo. Upon arrival at Cairo International Airport, our representative will be waiting for you to drive back to the hotel for early check-in and overnight accommodation.

Meals included: Breakfast and lunch
