

7-Day Tour to Siwa, Bahariya & White Desert

Siwa, Bahariya & White Desert.

Duration Tour type Runs

7 Days Private everyday

Overview

The 7-Day Tour to Siwa, Bahariya, and the White Desert is an unforgettable adventure through Egypt's incredibly captivating desert landscapes and historical gems. The desert oasis Siwa itself is an isolated outpost that holds numerous ancient sites like the Temple of Amun and the Oracle Temple, along with serene lakes and sand dunes. The journey goes further to Bahariya Oasis, where Golden Mummies and the Temple of Alexander the Great will be visited, before going into surreal White Desert and Black Desert with breathtaking, out-of-this-world landscapes and peculiarly shaped rock formations. Such a tour offers all that one may need or ask for: a perfect blend of culture, history, and natural beauty, which in turn is the truly unique experience in egypt travel packages

Itinerary

Day 1

Cairo to Siwa

Best Destination Tours will meet you at your hotel to begin your Egypt Desert Safari Tours. You will then be driven to Alamein on the North Coast of Egypt, about 3 hours including stops for coffee breaks en-route, to enjoy your informative El Alamein tour from Cairo by visiting the Museum of World War II and learn about the 2 main battles that happened at Al-Alamein and the results in detail and the number of each army that participated in the chaos, which resulted in such a big number of dead, wounded, and lost soldiers at their youth.

Also, visit the Commonwealth Cemetery. You will visit the Australian, Italian, and German memorial cemeteries during your Al Alamein tours before heading to have an oriental lunch in a good-quality restaurant in Marsa Matrouh after another 2 hours drive. Then we will start moving to Siwa Oasis, where you will check-in at your eco-lodge, have some rest, and if we have enough time, you can take a dip in one of the natural hot springs to relax your muscles after a long day drive.

Overnight in Siwa hotel.

Day 2

Siwa Attraction tours

Delight in an Egyptian breakfast at your hotel, and arise ready for your Egypt travel packages, which will take you to the ancient town of Shali, standing at the heart of the city next to the Shali fortress, which is also known as the center of the kerchief building system. Transfer to visit the most important site in Siwa, the Temple of Alexander the Great, also known as the Temple of the Oracle of Amun. The temple was built in the twenty-sixth Dynasty B.C. Head southwards to explore the remains of the temple of Amun at Um Ubayda, which was constructed in honor of the divine triad Amun, Mut, and Khonso. Travel to the Siwan House, which is very much an exhibit built by the Siwan People in order to contribute towards not letting their culture be lost over the years. Savor your lunch in a decent restaurant, and after that appreciate the afternoon relaxing at Cleopatra Spring, which is also called Ein Guba, to soak in its warm and mineral-enriched natural sulfur water before proceeding to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 3

Siwa Oasis Desert Safari

After your breakfast, embark on your Siwa Oasis Desert Safari. The first stop is at Maraki Village to check out interesting archaeological footprints at Great Siwa Mountain. Proceed with our adventure and admire the view as we move forward between the dunes until we get to the area of fossils visible and the ancient coral rocks that are of Cambrian origin. Drive forward to one of the picturesque locations in the Great Sand Sea, which is rated third in the world as far as sand deposits are concerned. In order to enjoy an adrenaline-pumping Jeep Safari, visit a scenic oasis that is found in the heart of the desert, which provides an opportunity to swim with Tilapia. Later on, get excited with the experience of sandboarding. This is very famous among tourists because of the relaxation and hot spring bath at Bir Wahid hot spring well. There's time for one last breathtaking sunset over the Great Sand Sea, in the dunes, this time with some lemon-leaf Bedouin tea.

End your day in Siwa.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4

Siwa Oasis

Begin your day by having breakfast, and afterwards you will head for a tour of the rock-hewn tombs located at the Mountain of the Dead (Gabal El Mauta). The tour will include breathtaking tombs of Siwa Oasis rulers during the 26th dynasty, such as the tomb of Si Amon and another tomb popularly known as the Crocodile Tomb. Afterwards, experience the Bedouin village of Abu Ali and its surroundings in order to appreciate the Bedouin culture and try to echo your voice in the mountain-like canyons in the stillness of the place. Return to Siwa, where the famous Dakroun Mountain is located, where the Siwan people organize an annual feast. Feasting your eyes in another setting sun picture at the Fitnas island with a hot local drink in hand as well as taking your own timelapse pictures before being taken back to the town center for sleep at your Eco-lodge.
