Following a delicious breakfast, we embark on a visit to the temple of Gebel El-Silsila, unveiling the secrets of the lesser-known rock-cut temple of Hormoheb and exploring the renowned sandstone quarries of ancient Egypt.

Our journey continues to Mainha Island, where we indulge in a delightful barbecue dinner accompanied by the rhythmic beats of drums and enchanting folk music around a crackling campfire. Enjoy the ambiance as we create unforgettable memories under the starlit sky.

Day 5

Kom Ombo

Relish a leisurely breakfast as we sail towards Kom Ombo. Prepare to be amazed as we explore the extraordinary temple of Horus and Sobek, marveling at its unique symmetry and dual sanctuaries dedicated to the Falcon God Haroeris and the Crocodile God Sobek. Next, we venture to Daraw City, where the highlight is undoubtedly the bustling Camel Market. Witness the spectacle of over 20,000 camels brought together for the vibrant selling show—an unforgettable sight to behold. After lunch, we set sail from Daraw to Kobania, a scenic journey that takes approximately 5 hours. As our voyage draws to a close, we'll end our journey on a high note with a lively Nubian party, celebrating our unforgettable adventure on the Nile.

Day 6

Kom Ombo - Aswan

We embark on a voyage to Aswan, where we immerse ourselves in the city's rich heritage. Our journey begins with a visit to the renowned High Dam, followed by crossing the original barrage over the First Cataract. Next, we venture to the fascinating Aswan granite quarry, where we arrive at the impressive Hatshepsut unfinished obelisk. The highlight of our journey is a motorboat excursion to the enchanting Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddess Isis. In the afternoon, we leisurely sail by felucca to the Botanical Gardens, once a sanctuary for Lord Kitchener's exotic flora collection. Strolling through the gardens' shaded paths, we savor the fragrances and observe the diverse bird life. Our return journey to Aswan by felucca is a serene conclusion to our day, culminating in a delightful dinner on board.
