Itinerary

---

Day 1

Arrival in Nairobi

You shall be welcomed at the Jomo Kenyatta International Airport with warmth and transferred to your hotel by our representative. 7 days in Kenya from Nairobi will begin with a relaxing day to unwind and settle in before your wildlife adventure.

Overnight: Nairobi Serena Hotel

Day 2

Start Your Day in Maasai Mara National Reserve

The Rift Valley provides a scenic drive to Maasai Mara, the most iconic wildlife reserve in Kenya. On the way, witness exciting game drives with Africa vacations offering the perfect backdrop, arriving just in time for lunch at Keekorok Lodge. The Maasai Mara is famous for its varied wildlife habitat for the Big Five and very fraught scenes in the film Out of Africa. By the way, do not miss out on the great annual migration of millions of wildebeests, zebras, and gazelles from Serengeti to the Mara River; this enchanting event runs from late June onward. Kenya travel will guide you through this unforgettable experience. This game reserve is also a birdwatching paradise with more than 450 species of birds. Keekorok Lodge is set in 700 square miles of lush plains, ideal for game drives during the migration period, July-October. Overnight at Keekorok Lodge.

Meals are breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Day 3

Second Day in Maasai Mara National Park

The full day is spent in Maasai Mara doing game drives in the morning and evening. In between, you can do so many activities offered in the lodge, such as nature walking and cultural visitations with the Maasai community. Africa vacations offer the chance to experience the Mara's vivid ecosystem, beauty, and wildlife up close.

Overnight: Keekorok Lodge

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 4

Lake Nakuru National Park

After breakfast, you will depart for Lake Nakuru National Park, where flamingos proliferate and wash the surface of the lake with pink. The park is a wildlife sanctuary, featuring leopards reclining on acacia trees, lions, buffaloes, hippos, black rhinos, and white rhinos. Unique places to visit in Kenya like this park also offer the rare Rothschild giraffe, a species confined to this park. The accommodation at Flamingo Hill Tented Camp guarantees an exclusive and luxurious experience with well-furnished tents that offer comfort and peace right in the heart of the park.

Overnight: Flamingo Hill Tented Camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 5

Aberdare National Park

We bid farewell to Lake Nakuru after breakfast and then journey to Aberdare National Park. This glorious park, with its steep forested ravines and wide-open moorlands, accommodates elephants, black rhinos, leopards, spotted hyenas, baboons, and the like. 7 days in Kenya from Nairobi expose rare animals like the elusive bongo antelope and the golden cat. Aside from this, trout fishing, picnics, and bird watching afford great opportunities; there are over 250 species of birds in the Aberdares. The star on the itinerary is The Ark, a comfy and peculiar lodge that gives breathtaking wildlife viewing right from your window.

Overnight: The Ark

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 6

Return to Nairobi

Indulge in a last breakfast in Aberdare before returning to bustling Nairobi, the capital city of Kenya. 7 days in Kenya from Nairobi culminates with an afternoon arrival, leaving the rest of the day free for unwinding and venturing into the vibrant city offering a killer blend of modernity and tradition.

Overnight: Nairobi Serena Hotel

Meal: Breakfast

Day 7

Nairobi Excursions and Final Departure

Start your action-filled day early by visiting the Nairobi National Park just outside the city's business district. Enjoy a game drive, looking out on sweeping grasslands, acacia bushes, and against a backdrop of the city skyscrapers. 7 days in Kenya from Nairobi will offer you the chance to see the endangered black rhino and lions, leopards, and cheetahs in their natural habitat. The David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust is next on your itinerary, where you will get the chance to meet and even adopt orphaned baby elephants. You will get a one-hour opportunity from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm to interact closely with these gentle giants. Your adventure continues at the Giraffe Centre, where Rothschild giraffes are endangered. The sanctuary features a nature trail winding through indigenous forests where visitors may feed these beautiful animals. Warthogs and hyenas, leopards, can also be spotted along the trail.

Indulge in a hearty lunch at The Talisman Restaurant in Karen, then head back to the hotel in the early afternoon. In the evening, after a short pause at your Hotel, will come the airport transfer for the departure flight, waving goodbye to Kenya with memories of extraordinary wildlife and breathtaking landscapes.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch
