Day 1

Cairo - Aswan (with Nile Cruise)

A representative will welcome you in the hotel lobby in Cairo for your transfer to Cairo Airport to catch your flight to Aswan. This event initiates your cruise along the Nile.

Upon your arrival at Aswan Airport, you will meet your Egyptologist tour guide, who will take you to that wonderful city known as Aswan. This includes a visit to the High Dam, built by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser in 1960 to protect Egypt against floods caused by the Nile, as part of your Egypt Nile cruise. You will also explore other fascinating Aswan attractions.

Now it's time to jump into a motorboat, take a cruise on the Nile, and go to Agilika Island, where the temple of Philae can be found. This temple, built in the Greco-Roman period, is dedicated to Isis, the mother of Horus.

This excursion will include a visit to the Unfinished Obelisk, a beautiful monument made from red granite and meant for the god Amun Ra.

Your day excursions will conclude, and you will be transferred to your Nile cruise for checking-in and overnight accommodation.

Includes Meals:

Lunch

Dinner

Day 2

Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

Breakfast will be served on board your vessel. After breakfast, you will accompany your Egyptologist tour guide to the Temple of Kom Ombo - one of the most glorious temples of Egypt, where the gods Sobek and Haroeris were worshiped. Proceed back to the ship for lunch on the sun deck with the great views of the Nile, and enjoy some of the best things to do in Aswan.

In the afternoon, you will have the chance to ride a chariot to the Temple of Horus at Edfu, one of the most well-preserved temples in Egypt. Following your investigation, you will return to your ship.

Enjoy thus, relaxing on board with dinner served in the evening, followed by an Egyptian folkloric show presented by the staff of the ship.

The Meals Provided Include: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner.

Day 3

Visit West Bank of Luxor with Nile Cruise

Breakfast on the Nile cruise, and then you will embark on a lovely excursion to the sacred land of Thebes, exploring first the western bank of Luxor, which includes the Valley of the Kings. Among the famous sites in Luxor, this site is known as the royal burial ground of Theban kings and rulers of ancient Egypt, where our Pharaohs were buried.

Then, you will proceed to visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at Deir El Bahari. This temple is one of the most known examples of Egypt's architectural art since it was completely carved from the mountainside.

The final part of the tour now would take you to the Colossi of Memnon, as they were correlated with King Amenhotep III. After this, you'd go back to your boat for lunch. The afternoon would be free for leisure time followed by dinner and overnight on board.

Meals included:
