Panoramica

Best Destination Tours offers you a splendid experience to enjoy while you're in Aswan: Visit the Kalabsha Temple and the Nubian Museum. Originally built by Thutmose II and Amenophis II at Kalabsha, 40 miles south of Aswan, the temple was later restored during the Roman conquest. Conclude your tour with a visit to the long-awaited Nubian Museum, which opened in 1997. This museum showcases thousands of antiquities that were rescued from the waters of Lake Nasser. Its name derives from the ancient Egyptian "Nbu," meaning gold, in reference to the region's renowned gold mines. Additionally, you'll experience scenes of Nubian life depicted through a variety of life-size displays.
